INDIA SPECIFIC INFORMATION

8 TRANSPORTATION

TRAVELLING BY ROAD

The roads in India can be very unpredictable and are frequently narrow, bumpy and pot-holed. At times you will also see livestock wandering along the roads. Journey times can vary for these reasons and also due to a change in road conditions which can be brought on by the monsoons. This is beyond the control of Greaves Travel. All our drivers are, however, trained and experienced. We generally use air conditioned sedan cars. Where we offer trips to larger groups, we may also use deluxe air-conditioned coaches, but these cannot in anyway be compared to that of western coaches.

TRAVELLING BY TRAIN

Train travel in India is very interesting and a better way to measure the rhythm of the country. Trains in India are basic but are usually comfortable. Where possible we will always try and reserve first class or air-conditioned carriages, but these cannot always be reserved and do not exist on all routes. Our tour consultants will be glad to discuss the facilities available on the route you would be taking. Overnight train journeys are generally not recommended.

TRAVELLING BY AIR

When booking the international airfare we will use our special inclusive tours fares from the airlines. Whilst these are very competitive fares it does mean that they are heavily restricted / inflexible tickets and do not allow for changes or any refunds once they have been issued. Our itineraries include some internal air travel in India. The main airlines used are Air India and Jet Airways, however there are other domestic carriers. Inflight catering is basic. Travel is in economy class. Unfortunately, some airlines have a reputation for flight delays, cancellations and occasionally strikes. These aspects can be trying at times and patience and a good sense of humour will help a great deal. Such problems are outside of Greaves Travel's control, however we will offer a suitable alternative with the minimum change to the itinerary as possible at no extra cost to yourself. Should you find this unsuitable our agents will endeavour to make arrangements as per your instructions, however any extra costs will have to be borne by the traveller. Please note all domestic flights in India have a baggage restriction of 15kgs per person in economy class.

9 ACCOMMODATION

The standards of accommodation vary dramatically throughout the Indian Subcontinent. The comparison of these standards with the western code of classification is not possible. As many of the hotels in India are constantly trying to improve their services, you may occasionally find that your hotel has building work being carried out. We will of course try to arrange your accommodation at another hotel should we know in advance that the building work is being carried out, however if this is not possible we will try and arrange for your room to be as far away from the building work as possible, although this cannot be guaranteed.

10 AIRPORT DEPARTURE TAXES

The cost of our tours include airport departure taxes from both India & the UK.

11 TIME DIFFERENCE

Indian standard time is 5 and a 1/2 hours ahead of GMT. India has only one-time zone.

12 ELECTRICITY

The electric current in India is 230-240V and electricity is widely available in the main towns, cities and tourist destinations. Sockets are the three round-pinned variety, similar (but not identical) to European sockets.

13 GRATUITIES & TIPPING

This is entirely at your discretion. However, the following may be helpful. If service is not included in the bill, 10% is usually the accepted amount. Hotel and railway porters will expect about 50 rupees for one piece of luggage and about 200 rupees for a trolley full. At the end of your stay if you wish to tip your sightseeing guide and driver, an acceptable amount for the guide would be approximately between 400 – 500 Rupees per day; and for the driver, it would be approximately 500 rupees per day or more depending on the distance covered.

14 CURRENCY

There are no restrictions on the amount of foreign currency you may bring into India, provided a declaration is made in the currency declaration form given to arriving passengers. However, cash, bank notes up to US $10,000 or equivalent need not be declared at the time of entry. It is advisable to change your money through authorised banks and hotels. Hotels are probably the most convenient option, as their rates are usually only a little poorer than the banks. Always keep your receipts, as you will need them at the end of your trip if you wish to convert your rupees back to your own currency. The units of Indian currency are the rupee and the paise. There are 100 paise in the rupee. Paper money comes in the denominations of 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200, 500 and 2000 rupees and coins are available in 1, 2, 5 10 and 20. All major credit cards are accepted in most hotels and restaurants and government shops. There are ATM machines at all major airports, as well as in all major cities.

15 SHOPPING

India is a shopper's paradise with the promise of some excellent buys! However, as a word of caution, import duty may be levied on certain items that you have purchased when you reach the airport to depart India. Many local shopkeepers may claim that there is no duty levied, but this could be incorrect information.

Please try and carry back all the goods that you purchase with you to avoid storage charges. If you are planning major shopping, please seek information and advice from customs authorities before departing on your tour. When shopping for expensive items such as precious stones, carpets etc, the shopkeepers may guarantee the authenticity of the item, but expert knowledge is essential to ascertain their true value. For general shopping we recommend the Government Emporiums, and the shops in the hotels where quality and price are a little more reliable. You will find a huge choice of goods, from fashion bags and shoes, to Indian silks and handicrafts. Do not forget that any item that is more than 100 years old is banned from export out of the country, as is ivory, crocodile skin and other wildlife products. We pride ourselves on the quality of our sightseeing guides. However, if at any time you feel pressured by the guides to purchase any goods, we would be grateful if you would bring it to the attention of our local representatives. Please note that bargaining is common in India at most of the establishments except at the Government Emporiums where prices are generally fixed.

We will not be responsible for your dissatisfaction in respect of any item purchased during the course of your journey.

STANDARD INFORMATION FORM FOR PACKAGE HOLIDAYS

PART 1 – GENERAL

The combination of travel services offered to you is a package within the meaning of the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018.

Therefore you will benefit from all EU rights applying to the packages. Greaves Travel will be fully responsible for the proper performance of the package as a whole.

Additionally, as required by law, Greaves Travel has protection in place to refund your payments and, where transport is included in the package, to ensure your repatriation in the event that it becomes insolvent.

PART 2 – KEY RIGHTS UNDER THE PACKAGE TRAVEL AND LINKED TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS REGULATIONS 2018

- Travellers will receive all essential information about the package before concluding the package travel contract.
- There is always at least one trader who is liable for the proper performance of all the travel services included in the contract.
- Travellers are given an emergency telephone number or details of a contact point where they can get in touch with the organiser or the travel agent.
- Travellers may transfer the package to another person, on reasonable notice and possibly subject to additional costs.
- The price of the package may only be increased if specific costs rise (for instance fuel prices), and if expressly provided for in the contract, and in any event not later than 20 days before the start of the package. If the price increase exceeds 8% of the price of the package, the traveller may terminate the contract. If the organiser reserves the right to a price increase, the traveller has a right to a price reduction if there is a decrease in the relevant costs.
- Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee and get a full refund of any payments if any of the essential elements of the package, other than the price, has changed significantly. If before the start of the package the trader responsible for the package cancels the package, travellers are entitled to a refund and compensation where appropriate.
- Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee before the start of the package in the event of exceptional circumstances, for instance if there are serious security problems at the destination which are likely to affect the package.
- Additionally, travellers may at any time before the start of the package terminate the contract in return for an appropriate and justifiable termination fee.
- If, after the start of the package, significant elements of the package cannot be provided as agreed, suitable alternative arrangements will have to be offered to the traveller at no extra cost. Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee, where services are not performed in accordance with the contract and this substantially affects the performance of the package and the organiser fails to remedy the problem.
- Travellers are also entitled to a price reduction or compensation for damages or both where the travel services are not performed or are improperly performed.
- The organiser has to provide assistance if the traveller is in difficulty.

4 YOUR BALANCE PAYMENT

- c) Please note that you may also need to take out additional insurance as a result of any change or alteration to your booking.

6 CANCELLATION BY YOU

- a) You may cancel your holiday at any time providing that the cancellation is communicated to us in writing either directly or via the travel agent with whom you made your booking. As we will have already incurred various costs, we will retain your deposit and in addition may apply cancellation charges up to the maximum amounts shown below.

Period before departure within which written cancellation is received by us	Amount of cancellation charge shown as a percentage of the total holiday price (including deposit)
Greater than 70 days	Loss of deposit only
64 to 70 days	50% (if greater than deposit)

No transfer will be allowed after this. Where we approve the transfer of your booking, both you and the person to whom it is transferred will be jointly and severally liable to pay us the price of the holiday (or, if part of the price has been paid, the balance of the price) together with any additional costs we incur in effecting the transfer.

Important Information, Booking Conditions & Booking Form

b) If you cancel before the start of your booking because of an Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstance at your destination, that would significantly impact the performance of either your booking or the carriage of your party to the destination, you will not have to pay any cancellation charges and your deposit will be refunded. See paragraph 10 for details of what counts as an Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstance.

7 COMPLAINTS

a) We are responsible for the performance of your holiday. If you have a problem during your holiday, please report the matter in the first instance to our ground representatives at your holiday location or to the manager of the hotel in which you are staying or the supplier of the service concerned. If your complaint cannot be resolved locally, you must report the matter to us by phone or email within 48 hours (or as soon as possible after that), so that we are given the opportunity to remedy the problem while you are still away. If the matter is not resolved to your satisfaction, on your return you should write a letter to our Tours Manager at our head office within 28 days. We will acknowledge your letter upon receipt, and within 28 days of receipt send you a full reply, or a full explanation for any further delay. In any event the full reply will be sent within 56 days of receipt of your letter.

We will need to investigate your complaint and so it is important that any complaint is notified to use within the time periods specified above. Otherwise we may not have the opportunity to investigate and rectify the problem.

b) It is our policy to take all steps to ensure that every aspect of your holiday conforms with your booking such that complaints do not arise. However, in the unlikely event that a problem does arise which we have not been able to resolve to your satisfaction, we will reimburse you an appropriate sum, for example if a problem arises on one night of your stay, we may reimburse the equivalent of the cost of the accommodation for that night. If you suffer any damage as a result of your holiday not conforming with your booking, provided that we are responsible (see paragraph 13 below for further details of when we are responsible), we may also pay you a reasonable level of compensation.

8 PRICES

Once your booking is accepted by us, we will not make any alteration to the price of your holiday within the period of 20 days before the date on which you are due to depart. Outside of this 20 day period, we may need to revise the price of the holiday upwards or downward solely to allow for variations in: i) transportation costs resulting from the cost of fuel or other power sources; ii) dues, taxes or fees chargeable for services such as landing, taxes or embarkation fees at ports or airports, or iii) the exchange rates applied to the particular package. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent up to 2% of the holiday price which excludes amendment charges. You will only have to pay the balance of any price increases which exceed 2% of the holiday price. If such changes in price amount to more than 8% of the holiday price, you will be entitled to cancel your holiday with a full refund of all monies paid except insofar as such sums represent amendment charges. Should you decide to cancel for this reason, you must exercise your right to do so within 14 days from the date on which we notify you of such changes. Any refunds will be paid to you within 14 days of cancellation.

Important Information, Booking Conditions & Booking Form

9 ALTERATIONS TO YOUR HOLIDAY BY US

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your holiday, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, changes may have to be made to your tour (e.g. itineraries, hotel accommodation or other travel arrangements), and these changes may be either major or minor.

a) A minor change is any change apart from a major change as defined below. We will inform you about any minor changes once we are aware of them.

b) A major change is an alteration to your flight time by more than 12 hours, a change in type or standard of accommodation or a significant alteration to the main characteristic of your holiday such as a change to the destination or the dates of the trip. When a change is a major change, we will advise you as soon as is reasonably possible. You will then have the choice of accepting the change, taking an alternative holiday subject to any change in price that we communicate to you (where the alternative holiday is of a lower price, we will refund the difference), or withdrawing from the contract and accepting a full refund of all monies paid. Any refunds will be paid to you within 14 days of cancellation.

In addition, in appropriate cases, we will pay the following compensation per adult (on the assumption that the full balance of your booking has been paid when we notify you of the major change).

Compensation per person, based on the time before departure that the major change was notified to you

Less than 56 days £20

Less than 14 days £40

You will not receive any compensation in the event that a major change is made as a result of Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances.

10 CANCELLATION OF YOUR HOLIDAY BY US

It is unlikely that we will need to cancel your booking, however we reserve the right to do so.

a) In circumstances where we cancel your booking, you can either choose to receive a refund of all monies paid, or accept an alternative holiday of an equivalent or lower standard (subject to availability), and where the holiday is of a lower standard to the one originally booked we will refund the difference between the cost of the new holiday and the sums which you have paid to us. Any refunds will be paid to you within 14 days of cancellation.

b) Unless the cancellation is due to Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances, if we cancel your booking within 8 weeks of departure, we will also pay you compensation on the same scale to that shown in paragraph 9 above. If we need to cancel your booking due to Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstance we will not pay any compensation.

Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances means a situation beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided, even if all reasonable measures were taken. Examples include war, acts of terrorism, serious security issues, pandemics, outbreaks of serious disease and natural disasters and extreme weather conditions making it unsafe to travel.

11 CORONAVIRUS OR SIMILAR PANDEMIC CANCELLATIONS

a) Where we are required to cancel your booking for reasons relating to Coronavirus or another similar pandemic scenario, you will be given the option to reschedule your booking, receive a credit note to be used for a future booking or a full refund of all amounts paid (including your deposit). These cancellation reasons could include:

- The UK government restricts all but essential travel to the destination.
- The destination/s you are travelling to is under an official government imposed lock-down which prohibits guests from traveling.
- If the government of the destination/s in which Greaves Travel tour is located has declared that no visas will be issued to travellers from the guest's country of residence.
- The destination/s have no formal lock-down but have closed their border either to international travellers or to travellers from your country of residence.

If you decide to reschedule your booking, we may need to adjust the cost of your trip to reflect the new dates, particularly if those coincide with festivals or a higher season of travel.

b) Please ensure that your travel insurance covers you if anyone in your booking party, test positive for Coronavirus or any other related or similar illness either prior or during your tour. Greaves Travel will not be responsible for any refunds, compensation, costs, expenses or other losses of any kind incurred in these circumstances. If the trip is legally able to go ahead, any cancellation will be treated as a "cancellation by you" under paragraph 6 above.

12 PROVISION OF SERVICES AND ASSISTANCE WHILST YOU ARE AWAY

a) If, whilst you are on holiday, we find that it is not possible to provide a significant proportion of the travel services which we agreed to provide to you or we become aware we will be unable to, we will make suitable arrangements at no extra cost to you for the continuation of your holiday. We will also, where appropriate, reimburse you the difference between the services agreed to be supplied and those actually supplied. Where we cannot make such alternative arrangements, or where these arrangements are not reasonably acceptable to you, we will, where appropriate, arrange for you to return to the location from which you departed at the beginning of your holiday by the same form of transport used for your outbound journey (or, if that is not available, another form of transport) and will, where appropriate, pay you a reasonable level of compensation.

b) Where you are in difficulty, we will provide appropriate assistance without undue delay, by providing appropriate information on health services, local authorities and consular assistance; and assisting you to make distance communications and find alternative travel arrangements. We may charge a reasonable fee to cover our costs for such assistance if the difficulty is caused intentionally by you or through your negligence.

13 OUR RESPONSIBILITY

a) We do not limit our liability where we cannot do so by law, nor do we limit our liability for personal injury or damage caused intentionally by us or with our negligence.

Important Information, Booking Conditions & Booking Form

b) We will not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by you or your party which results from: (i) business losses; (ii) the acts or omissions of you or any member of your party; (iii) the acts or omissions of a third party unconnected with our provision of travel services to you, that are unforeseeable or unavoidable; and (iv) Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances (as defined in paragraph 10). This does not affect your rights under paragraph 10 in the event that we are required to cancel your booking due to Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances.

c) If any international convention (for example conventions that apply to travel by air, sea or rail) limits the extent of, or the conditions under which, compensation is to be paid in respect of any part of your booking, the same limitations will apply to Greaves Travel.

d) Subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, we are responsible for the performance of your holiday and accept liability should any part of your holiday arrangements booked with us not be as described by us and not be of a reasonable standard and will pay you reasonable compensation for loss or damage that you suffer as a result. The maximum amount of compensation which we will pay you in any circumstance will be 3 times the total cost of your holiday. If you are awarded compensation under any passenger rights legislation or international convention, we are entitled to deduct this from any sum paid to you as compensation by us.

14 VISAS

Greaves Travel will not be responsible if entry or departure is denied or delayed for any reason whatsoever by the authorities of any country. Up-to-date information on visa requirements can be found on our website at: <https://www.greavesindia.co.uk/about-us/faqs-travel-guide/#passport-visas>. However, it is your responsibility to ensure that you hold the correct and valid travel documents including visas for all countries to be visited and you are independently responsible for the cost of any visas. Bookings do not include the cost of visas and Greaves Travel accepts no responsibility for travellers who have incorrect or insufficient documentation.

15 SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special requests, you should inform Greaves Travel or any travel agent through whom you make a booking at the time the booking is made. We will advise the relevant suppliers of such requests, but cannot guarantee that they will be met. Furthermore, Greaves Travel will not be liable if such requests are not met.

16 ATOL – YOUR FINANCIAL PROTECTION

a) When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive package from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong.

b) We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where we aren't able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

c) If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

a) When your holiday includes travel on airline(s), the terms and conditions of that airline will apply, which may limit or exclude liability. Please read any airline terms carefully.

b) Children and infants must be the required age on the date of the relevant flight, to qualify for child or infant status. For details of the applicable age limits and seating requirements, please check with our staff prior to booking.
